

StJ Art on the Street Gallery Stroll

Friday, August 25th from 4-7pm.

Caplan's Building
457 Railroad Street

Location 1

Philip Herbison

Catamount Arts is excited to present Philip's work in their new temporary Gallery and Box Office! After many years in Montreal as a painter and then a filmmaker, Phil moved to Vermont and resumed his life as an artist. Since then his work has included primarily assemblages of wood scraps and found objects, while his photography has focused on his immediate natural environment- the hills of Vermont. A wine and cheese reception with Phil will take place from 5-7pm.

Michale B. Estar Open Studio
443 Railroad Street

Location 2

Michale B. Estar

Michale is a multi-media artist who uses recycled and found materials and sculptural elements to create vibrant paintings. She shares about her art:

"Art proves itself to be a vehicle of transformation for forgiveness, awe, and gaining renewed insight...Art presses itself out in a unique artistic language, blending a balance of giving and receiving." Meet Michale and see her artwork from 4-7pm. Walk through the retail shop and Michale's studio is in the back.

Northeast Kingdom Artisans Guild
430 Railroad Street

Location 3

Michael Roosevelt

The Guild presents in the Backroom Gallery, A Life in Print. Michael Roosevelt's work ranges from large engravings on copper to lithographs and relief prints (both wood engravings and linoleum cuts). The majority of his early work is black and white although recently he has made a quantity of color relief prints. His subjects cover a broad range with a special emphasis on figures, landscapes and architectural themes. Many of the pieces shown here are relief prints of subjects found in New England and the Maritime Provinces. The opening reception is on Final Friday! The Guild will be offering 20% all artwork in the Backroom Gallery.

Custom Portraits
Railroad Street

Location 4

Larry Golden

Prolific local painter and retired educator Larry Golden will sketch your portrait for free! Sittings are first come, first served. Larry will also have original oil paintings featuring local landmarks on display.

Whirligig Brewing
397 Railroad Street

Location 5

Harlan Mack

Harlan is a multidisciplinary artist based at the Vermont Studio Center in Johnson, Vermont. He employs blacksmithing, steel fabrication, painting, and oral storytelling to build an expanding, constellated narrative that invites viewers and listeners into an imaginary future. This world is generated and inspired by Harlan's life experience, exploration and thoughts around identity, labor, perception, contemplation, fiction, community, emergence and afro-futurism. The Whirligig taproom is open 4-9pm.

Cosmic Cup Cafe
379 Railroad Street

Location 6

Meri Stiles and Christopher Rice

Meri Stiles and Christopher Rice present Harmony, a multimedia body of work at the cafe.

Jackie Fox Photography
379 Railroad Street

Location 7

Jackie Fox is a professional wedding and event photographer. Jackie will be exhibiting some new work in her gallery, and will have archival photographic prints available for purchase. Open from 4-6pm.

Art & Joy
375 Railroad Street

Location 8

Scott Bergman

Art & Joy sells unique gifts that celebrate innovative designers, diverse artists, and local makers. In the gallery is a new show by Scott Bergman. Scott is a woodworker, specializing in benches, tables, and chairs. Scott will also be teaching a table making course through the Adult Education Program at St. Johnsburry Academy this fall.

St. J Spins
14 Eastern Ave
DJ StJ Spins

Location 9

St.J Spins is a record shop featuring a wide selection of vinyl spanning genres and decades. Peruse the shop's offerings while listening to records spun by the shop's very own DJ!

Haven
18 Eastern Avenue

Location 10

Bread + Puppet

Peter Schumann and his wife, Elka Schumann, co-founded Bread + Puppet in NYC in 1963. The theater, named for its puppetry show and freshly baked bread, is known for its creative radical political puppetry. In 1970, B+P theater moved to the Northeast Kingdom of Vermont, where the company still performs and continues to be one of the oldest, nonprofit, political theatre companies in the country. Schumann remains an incredibly prolific multidisciplinary artist producing hundreds of works each year including paintings, dances, music, and writings. Live performances on the corner of Railroad + Eastern Ave (weather permitting) at 5, 6, and 7 PM. Work will remain on display through Indigenous People's Day. Opening reception catered by Agatha Italian w/beverage service by Eden Ciders from 5-8 PM. Suggested Donation $10-20. In response to recent flooding, this event will be a fundraiser and 75% of donations will go to Riverside Farm of Hardwick. Work will be on display throughout the weekend.

Ysbrydoliaeth
71 Eastern Avenue

Location 11

Rachel Yoder

Ysbrydoliaeth (pronounced uh-sprid-OH-ly-eye-th) is a curiosity shop specializing in artisan wares from around the world. They are delighted to feature Pennsylvania German Designs by Rachel Yoder, including Pennsylvania German redware. Open from 4-7pm.

The front window of 142 Eastern Avenue

Location 12

Sarah Thompson

Central Vermont artist Sarah Thompson presents a series of paintings made with assembled found objects, exploring her strong commitment to ecological consciousness and social justice. She embraces sustainability by using repurposed materials like roadside litter, dumpster treasures, and waste byproducts from her work, transforming them into thought-provoking paintings.

Chrysalis Creative 148 Eastern Avenue

Location 13

Chrysalis Creative is a community sewing hub where sewing enthusiasts can connect, share resources and knowledge, and access equipment and supplies that are not practical, necessary, or affordable for a single sewist to own. Come visit them in their brand new location!

Gypsy Coast 190 Eastern Avenue

Location 14

Tucked into an intaglio printmakers studio, Gypsy Coast carries on the printmaking legacy through custom screen printing. View a variety of designs printed on archival paper and quality fabrics. Studio will be open from 4-7pm.

On the side of the Flatiron Building Depot Square Clay Mohrman

Location 15

Created through an Animating Infrastructure grant from the Vermont Arts Council, "Light Shift" illuminates the Honking Tunnel area, as well as captures a physical rendering of the Doppler Effect, paying homage to the tradition of sounding a vehicle horn when about to drive through the tunnel. The sculpture illuminates at dusk.

