

StJ Art on the Street Gallery Stroll

Saturday, October 7th from 12-3pm.

Caplan's Building
457 Railroad Street

Location 1

Philip Herbison

Catamount Arts is excited to present Philip's work in their new temporary Gallery and Box Office! After many years in Montreal as a painter and then a filmmaker, Phil moved to Vermont and resumed his life as an artist. Since then his work has included primarily assemblages of wood scraps and found objects, while his photography has focused on his immediate natural environment—the hills of Vermont. A wine and cheese reception with Phil will take place from 5-7pm.

Michale B. Estar Open Studio
443 Railroad Street

Location 2

Michale B. Estar

Michale is a multi-media artist who uses recycled and found materials and sculptural elements to create vibrant paintings. She shares about her art:

“Art proves itself to be a vehicle of transformation for forgiveness, awe, and gaining renewed insight...Art presses itself out in a unique artistic language, blending a balance of giving and receiving.” Meet Michale and see her artwork from 4-7pm. Walk through the retail shop and Michale's studio is in the back.

Cary & Main
443 Railroad Street

Location 3

Angel M. Ramírez

Angel M. Ramírez is a Cuban artist that creates paintings, engravings, and sculptures using a variety of media. Using recycled objects, text and images, many taken from medieval times, he builds a language that reveals daily life in Cuba today. Angel has nearly completed a residency here in St. Johnsbury, creating a mural on the facade of the Cary & Main building. Inside the building, through the antique shop, a special exhibition of Ramírez work is on display. Open from 1-3pm.

Northeast Kingdom Artisans Guild
430 Railroad Street

Location 4

Peggy Watson

The Guild presents in the Backroom Gallery, Sculptured Paintings with Dimensions of Delight. Peggy builds shapes and layers made out of scraps and material, and then creates her paintings on this 3-dimensional surface. The opening reception is from 2-4pm. Refreshments will be served. The Guild will be offering 20% all artwork in the Backroom Gallery.

Whirligig Brewing
397 Railroad Street

Location 5

Harlan Mack

Harlan is a multidisciplinary artist based at the Vermont Studio Center in Johnson, Vermont. He employs blacksmithing, steel fabrication, painting, and oral storytelling to build an expanding, constellated narrative that invites viewers and listeners into an imaginary future. This world is generated and inspired by Harlan's life experience, exploration and thoughts around identity, labor, perception, contemplation, fiction, community, emergence and afro-futurism.

The Whirligig taproom is open 12-7pm.

Cosmic Cup Cafe
379 Railroad Street

Location 6

Michelle Turbide

Michelle uses her inspiration of the natural world of Vermont and the animals that inhabit the landscape to create small, vibrant paintings. The paintings primarily feature sheep, crows, and herons, all of which carry special significance to the artist.

The cafe serves breakfast and lunch, and a full line of espresso beverages, teas, and smoothies. Open until 2pm.

Jackie Fox Photography
379 Railroad Street

Location 7

Jackie Fox is a professional wedding and event photographer. Jackie will be exhibiting some new work in her gallery, and will have archival photographic prints available for purchase. Open from noon-3pm.

Art & Joy
375 Railroad Street

Location 8

Artist Cooperative

Art & Joy sells unique gifts that celebrate innovative designers, diverse artists, and local makers. In the gallery is a new show of local artists that are members of a cooperative artist studio in the making. Meet some of the artists/board members and learn more about how to participate!

On the side of the Flatiron Building
Depot Square
Clay Mohrman

Location 9

Created through an Animating Infrastructure grant from the Vermont Arts Council, “Light Shift” illuminates the Honking Tunnel area, as well as captures a physical rendering of the Doppler Effect, paying homage to the tradition of sounding a vehicle horn when about to drive through the tunnel. The sculpture illuminates at dusk.

St. J Spins
14 Eastern Ave

Location 10

DJ Tranquility Base

St.J Spins is a record shop featuring a wide selection of vinyl spanning genres and decades. Peruse the shop’s offerings while listening to records spun by the shop’s very own DJ!

Open 10am-5pm.

Haven
18 Eastern Avenue

Location 11

Bread + Puppet

Peter Schumann and his wife, Elka Schumann, co-founded Bread + Puppet in NYC in 1963. The theater, named for its puppetry show and freshly baked bread, is known for its creative radical political puppetry. In 1970, B+P theater moved to the Northeast Kingdom of Vermont, where the company still performs and continues to be one of the oldest, nonprofit, political theatre companies in the country. Schumann remains an incredibly prolific multidisciplinary artist producing hundreds of works each year including paintings, dances, music, and writings. This is the final weekend to see this show. Open Saturday 10am-5pm.

Ysbrydoliaeth
71 Eastern Avenue

Location 12

Rachel Yoder

Ysbrydoliaeth (pronounced uh-sprid-OH-ly-eye-th) is a curiosity shop specializing in artisan wares from around the world. They are delighted to feature Pennsylvania German Designs by Rachel Yoder, including Pennsylvania German redware. Open Saturday 10am-6pm.

Vermont Vintage
134 Eastern Avenue

Location 13

Garrett Heaney

Garrett co-owns and operates Vermont Vintage, an eclectic vintage clothing shop specializing in 80s and 90s era clothing. Garrett is a self-taught artist, who started drawing on paper bags at his job at a food co-op. Inspired by comic book illustrations, Garrett's paintings are, in the artist's words "comic booky and fun/rad". In addition to his preferred medium of gouache paint, Garrett has also been exploring adding digital elements to his illustrations. Open 11-6.

The front window of 142 Eastern Avenue

Location 14

Cloe Ashton

Cloe lives in St. Johnsbury and creates paintings and drawings both realistic and whimsical. See more at <https://obviouslycloe.org/> Cloe is also a board member of the newly-formed artist cooperative! See more work at Art and Joy.

Chrysalis Creative 148 Eastern Avenue

Location 15

Chrysalis Creative is a community sewing hub where sewing enthusiasts can connect, share resources and knowledge, and access equipment and supplies that are not practical, necessary, or affordable for a single sewist to own. Come visit them in their brand new location! During the gallery stroll, Chrysalis is hosting a print-your-own bandana craft! People of all ages are welcome to drop in and will be instructed on how to decorate a fabric square with cyanotype print (sunprint), flower or leaf prints with ink, or by transferring colors from plants to fabric by pounding them with a hammer! $10 materials fee. From 10am-2pm.

St Johnsbury Athenaeum

Location 16

1171 Main Street

The gallery features over 100 paintings by American and European artists from the late eighteenth century to the middle nineteenth century. The famous Hudson River School is strongly represented by such artists as Asher B. Durand (the father of American Landscape painting), Jasper Cropsey (known for autumn landscapes), Sanford Gifford (a Luminist painter), James and William Hart (pastoral landscapes with cattle), and western views by Samuel Colman and Worthington Whittredge. Dominating the gallery from its inception has been the magnificent canvas, ten feet by fifteen feet, of the Domes of the Yosemite, by Albert Bierstadt. An audio tour is available at 802-922-9094.

Also in the 2nd Floor Gallery, explore the works of Janus Press. Janus Press makes books and paintings on handmade paper. This show features many collaborations from multiple artists spanning nearly seven decades! The Athenaeum is open from 10am to 3pm.

The Golden Gallery
1567 Memorial Drive

Location 17

Lawrence Golden

Lawrence “Larry” Golden is a retired art instructor from St. Johnsbury Academy. A prolific plein air painter, Larry paints every day. He has participated in the Vermont Studio Center in Johnson, Vermont, and has had numerous shows throughout the Northeast Kingdom. He was a featured StJ Art on the Street Artist for the Summer 2021 show. One of his recent projects includes volunteer painting a four-season mural for the town of Lyndonville. Larry’s gallery features paintings both large and small, featuring iconic views of the Northeast Kingdom. The Golden Gallery is open Wednesday-Sunday 10:30am-4:30pm.

